THORNTON & NAUMES, LLP

WE DON'T REPRESENT CORPORATIONS. WE REPRESENT PEOPLE.

Since its founding in 1978, Thornton & Naumes has established itself as a leading law firm in Massachusetts and as the largest plaintiffs law firm in New England. Known nationally for its successful representation of thousands of clients, the firm's 23 attorneys specialize in complex financial fraud, banking fraud, and litigation. As a result, Thornton & Naumes has recovered billions of dollars on its clients' behalf.

FOCUS ON FINANCIAL FRAUD AND HOLDING CORPORATIONS ACCOUNTABLE

Thornton & Naumes represents whistleblowers and pension funds in some of the largest and most sophisticated financial services and bank fraud cases in world. These cases have already changed the way large financial services companies do business, improving transparency and lowering costs.

WORKING WITH WHISTLEBLOWERS

Thornton & Naumes represents whistleblowers in False Claims Act cases. Federal and state False Claims Act laws are powerful tools against corporate fraud, and they provide a reward for whistleblowers.

For example, the firm currently represents whistleblowers in cases brought against large custodial banks.

REPRESENTING PUBLIC AND PRIVATE PENSION FUNDS

Thornton & Naumes represents both public and private pension funds in several areas of financial fraud litigation, and it also represents states, employees, and unions in these matters. The firm maintains an extensive network of lawyers and experts from around the country to provide nationwide counsel in several areas of complex litigation, such as securities fraud and other class action matters.

A STRONG TEAM

Thornton & Naumes's attorneys have regularly won verdicts and settlements in the millions of dollars. Attorneys at the firm have also been AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell and selected for inclusion by their peers in publications such as The Best Lawyers in America® and Massachusetts Super Lawyers. In all cases, the firm's attorneys are supported by a highly qualified and dedicated staff of approximately 70 legal assistants, administrators, and support personnel.

HELLRING LINDEMAN GOLDSTEIN & SIEGAL LLP

Helling Lindeman Goldstein & Siegal LLP is a boutique law firm offering toughness, creativity, and professional accomplishment, which has led clients to bring their most difficult legal problems to it. The firm, founded in 1949, has wide experience in the private and public sectors. Many of its lawyers have served as judicial clerks and in government positions.

"In the era of the 'mega firm,' Helling offers an alternative," says Jonathan L. Goldstein. "We are known for personal lawyering, applying our skill and experience to legal problems requiring excellence."

The firm's Martindale-Hubbell AV-rated lawyers (their law schools are listed below) cover many areas. Joel D. Siegal (Yale), a former Commissioner to the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform Laws, represents clients in significant commercial litigation and corporate and matrimonial matters. Jonathan L. Goldstein (New York University), who was the U.S. Attorney (District of New Jersey), concentrates on complex commercial litigation, internal corporate investigations, and white-collar criminal defense. Margaret Dee Helling (Seton Hall), whose clients are devoted to her, focuses on substantial matrimonial matters. Charles Oransky (New York University, JD, L.L.M. in Taxation) heads our trusts and estates, tax practice, and he counsels businesses. Robert S. Raymar (Yale) specializes in complex commercial, employment discrimination, and environmental litigation. Michael Edelson (Harvard) concentrates on commercial real estate and municipal land use matters. Richard B. Honig (St. John's) heads our bankruptcy and creditor and debtor rights practices. Stephen L. Dreyfuss (Columbia) specializes in international business transactions and litigation within the European Union and particularly France. Richard K. Coplon (Harvard) primarily engages in litigation, family law, and commercial transactions.

Patricia A. Staiano (Seton Hall), formerly a U.S. Trustee (Districts of New Jersey, Delaware, and Pennsylvania), concentrates on bankruptcy and representation of bankruptcy trustees.

BIRD, MARELLA, BOXER, WOLPERT, NESSIM, DROOKS & LINCENBERG

Since its founding 30 years ago, Bird, Marella, Boxer, Wolpert, Nessim, Drooks & Lincenberg PC has built a reputation as one of the most successful litigation and trial law firms in the nation. Its 34 top-rated lawyers are regularly involved in complex civil litigation, white-collar criminal defenses, and large-scale governmental investigations.

The firm defends all types of white-collar criminal cases and has been particularly successful at killing cases before they are filed. Partner Gary Lincenberg notes that the firm is unmatched in terms of the breadth of its relationships within the white-collar world: "We have a record of winning acquittals in complex white-collar cases against the most experienced prosecutors."

In civil litigation, the firm has earned a reputation as a formidable trial boutique that scores major victories in federal and state courts throughout the country. Its trial lawyers are known for their judgment and efficiency in handling complex commercial cases on behalf of an impressive stable of institutional and individual clients.

Credibility with the courts is a firm mainstay. Its partners have gained appointment to the state and federal bench, and associates frequently come to the firm following clerkships with prominent federal judges. Partners have served on prestigious presidential and judicial committees for the selection of federal judges. In addition, five of the firm's attorneys have experience as Assistant United States Attorneys.

"What differentiates us from other law firms is the consistent quality in each of our generations," notes partner Terry Bird. "We are going on four generations now of top-quality lawyers. That consistency translates to effectiveness, efficiency, and success."

Many attorneys at the firm have been recognized by their peers in publications such as The Best Lawyers in America® and Southern California Super Lawyers, as well as by Martindale-Hubbell and Chambers and Partners. Additionally, the firm's attorneys include longtime Fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers, three lawyers who have served as National Co-Chair of the American Bar Association's White Collar Crime Committee, and one who was Chair of the Lawyer Representatives to the Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference.
