

U.S. News: Phillips Murrah One of Nation's Best Firms

Firm Receives Nationals Nods in More Than 20 Practice Areas

(OKLAHOMA CITY) January 30, 2013 – Calling Oklahoma City home for more than 25 years, Phillips Murrah law firm announced today that it has been top-ranked by U.S. News & World Report in 11 areas of practice, including banking, litigation, government relations, real estate and tax law.

Being ranked as one of the “Best Law Firms” in America for 2013 in the national news magazine’s Money Issue is testament to the firm’s mantra of being more than lawyers but strategic partners to its clients.

“Our diverse and talented team of attorneys is what makes Phillips Murrah one of Oklahoma’s best—truly a homegrown success story,” said Tom Wolfe, the firm’s president and managing partner.

The Best Law Firms ranking is designed as a guide for referring lawyers and clients, from the country’s largest companies requiring corporate legal advice to individuals seeking counsel on personal legal issues.

Combining hard data with peer reviews and client assessments, the Best Law Firms rankings are considered one of the most thorough, accurate and helpful rankings of law firms ever developed, with its national first-tier rankings featured in U.S. News & World Report’s Money Issue.

The 2013 release of Best Law Firm rankings provides a comprehensive view of the U.S. legal profession—unprecedented in both the range of firms represented and in the range of data used to develop the rankings.

“The ‘Best Law Firms’ rankings are now in their third year, and the reaction to the rankings from the legal profession and from legal clients continues to be very gratifying,” says Steven Naifeh, president of Best Lawyers.

Achieving a high ranking is a special distinction that signals a unique combination of excellence and breadth of expertise. Presented in tiers, these rankings showcase more than 10,000 law firms, rated nationally and by metropolitan region.
