

Elizabeth Brown Named to OIPA Board

Originally published in The Journal Record on Oct. 23, 2013.

Click to see Elizabeth K. Brown's attorney profile

Elizabeth K. Brown's practice is focused at a strategic level on serving her clients as outside counsel where she assists privately held companies in managing the many legal issues that arise in running a business.

OKLAHOMA CITY – Elizabeth Kemp Brown, a shareholder with Phillips Murrah, has been appointed to the Oklahoma Independent Petroleum Association board.

In addition to being an attorney and shareholder at Phillips Murrah, Brown is CEO of Ada-based Gloria Corp., an oil and gas exploration and production company started by her father.