

Phillips Murrah's Lisa McAlister wins COALA 2015 Paralegal of the Year

Lisa McAlister accepts the COALA 2015 Paralegal of the Year award from Judges Richard Ogden and Don Andrews.

Central Oklahoma Association of Legal Assistants honored Phillips Murrah's Lisa McAlister as their 2015 Paralegal of the Year.

"I am honored and humbled all at the same time to receive the Paralegal of the Year award," Lisa said. "It's team work at Phillips Murrah, and that's what helps me do a great job. I love that I'm part of this team."

Lisa is the first paralegal from Phillips Murrah to be recognized by COALA with this award.

"We are honored to have Lisa as a part of the Phillips Murrah family and to see her receive the Paralegal of the Year honor," Tom Wolfe, Phillips Murrah President, said. "She has the dedication and an exemplary personality to make her truly deserving of this award.”

Lisa received the honor at COALA’s annual awards luncheon on June 12. COALA provides a strong network of support among legal assistants, and promotes the legal assistant in the legal community as an educated and experienced professional.

Also featured in The Journal Record.