

Timothy D. Kline to speak at Oil & Gas Conference

Tim Kline represents clients mainly in bankruptcy and creditor rights matters and is a frequent lecturer on bankruptcy-related topics.

Phillips Murrah Director Tim Kline will be addressing the topic of restructuring at this year's Oklahoma Society of CPAs Oil & Gas Conference on Aug. 20.

The all-day conference will be held at the Sheraton Reed Center, located at 5800 Will Rogers Road in Midwest City. The conference is worth eight hours of recommended CPE credit.

From the informational brochure:

The 2015 conference will top off your tank with 13 sessions in today's most significant oil and gas developments. Sessions include: property and severance taxes, earthquakes and fracking; oil and gas acquisition; cyber threats; and more.

Tim's panel will be held from 11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

2015 OSCP
Oil & Gas Conference

Insolvency in the Oil Patch: An Energy Company – Chapter 11 Primer

Presented by Craig Regens, M.Sc., JD, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Oklahoma; William Hoch, JD, Crowe & Dunlevy; Timothy Kline, JD, Phillips Murrah P.C.; and G. Blaine Schwabe, III, JD, Gable Gotwals

Session objectives: Learn when to retain restructuring advisors; understand the costs and benefits associated with filing in the most commonly chosen venues; understand chapter 11 from a debtor's perspective from a secured creditor's perspective; understand the roles played by secured and unsecured creditors' committees; and learn how you can assist the debtor and the committees throughout a chapter 11 business reorganization.

Also, learn more about Tim's life and career in this Executive Q&A featured recently in The Oklahoman.