

Congratulations: PM Director Ray Zschiesche elected to OCBA Board of Directors

Ray Zschiesche's practice is focused on complex state and federal litigation and appeals.

The Oklahoma County Bar Association Nominations & Election Committee have announced members for its 2015-2016 Board of Directors.

Phillips Murrah Director Ray Zschiesche has been elected to the Board of Directors and will take office Sept. 1, 2015.

"I am honored to have been elected to the Board of Directors of the Oklahoma County Bar Association, and look forward to working with the incoming officers and other board members to continue the mission of the OCBA and its tradition of excellence," Ray said. "I appreciate the opportunity to serve the OCBA in this capacity and hope to contribute as much as I anticipate learning."

OCBA announced nominations for board members in June and took ballots through the end of July.

Ray was awarded OCBA's Committee of the Year award in June for his work as chairman of the Community Service Committee.