

Director Jim Roth teaches OCU Energy Law seminar for Spring 2017

Jim Roth is a Director and Chair of the firm's Clean Energy Practice.

Jim Roth, Director and Chair of Phillips Murrah's Clean Energy Practice Group, began a new role at Oklahoma City University's School of Law last week.

"Dean Valerie Couch reached out to me and asked if I would be interested in their inaugural 'Distinguished Practitioner in Residence' effort for this Spring Semester," Roth said.

Roth will teach a seminar class on Energy Law and Regulation and initiate an Energy Roundtable for the Spring 2017 semester.

"My ultimate hope is to inspire law students and young lawyers to pursue a career in the dynamic field of energy, or at least encourage them to have a deeper understanding of all the issues and cross-currents that drive energy in America and beyond," he said.
