

Attorney Cody Cooper elected Chair of OCBA Young Lawyers Division

Cody J. Cooper

Phillips Murrah Attorney Cody J. Cooper will begin his term as Chair of the Oklahoma County Bar Association's (OCBA) Young Lawyers Division (YLD) this September after being elected last year.

"Our focus is to keep young bar members engaged and perform community service," Cody said. "My role will be to head the organization for the year, provide direction, and continue the success that we've had."

The YLD is a division of OCBA for attorneys who have been in practice for 10 years or less. Cody has served on the YLD Board or Directors for four years.

"Cody will do a fabulous job as Chair of the Young Lawyers Division," said Fred A. Leibrock, Phillips Murrah Director. "He is a natural leader and motivator who excels at helping groups set and achieve lofty goals, and I anticipate many more great things to come from the Division under his chairmanship."

"All of his colleagues at Phillips Murrah are proud of his election and we look forward to supporting him every way we can to make his tenure a great success.”

The YLD has several big events throughout the year, with the primary fundraising effort being for the Harvest Food Drive to benefit the Oklahoma Food Bank.

“We do several community service projects throughout the year, including a bowling tournament and typically a project involving renovating a school room or community center,” Cody said. “We’ve renovated schools in Oklahoma City in the past and recently did one for Salvation Army.”

In addition to this election, Cody recently received his patent license to officially serve as a Patent Attorney.
