

Phillips Murrah welcomes new litigation attorney

Mark E. Hornbeek represents individuals and both privately-held and public companies in a wide range of civil litigation matters.

Phillips Murrah is proud to welcome Mark E. Hornbeek to our Firm.

Phillips Murrah welcomed Mark to the Firm's Litigation Practice Group as an associate attorney.

As a recent graduate of the University of Oklahoma School of Law, Mark earned the American Jurisprudence Award for Civil Procedure I, Torts I and Criminal Law. He served as Symposium Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review, was a member of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society, the Board of Advocates, and the Student Bar Association Board of Governors.

Mark also received the Welcome D. Pierson Award for excellence in the fields of Evidence and Civil Procedure, the Gene and Jo Ann Sharp Award for his contributions to the Oklahoma Law

Review, the William T. and James Comfort Scholarship, and was selected as a Dean's Leadership Fellow.

In his role at Phillips Murrah, Mark represents individuals and both privately-held and public companies in a wide range of civil litigation matters.
