

Phillips Murrah announces new Director, Shareholder for 2018

Director Kayce L. Gisinger

Phillips Murrah is proud to announce Attorney Kayce L. Gisinger has been selected to join the Firm's group of Directors, bringing the total number to 35.

"Working at Phillips Murrah has been such a positive experience, and I have so much respect for everyone here; not just in terms of the commitment to providing the highest level of service to our clients but also the equally outstanding commitment to community service work here in Oklahoma City," Gisinger said. "I feel very honored to be part of such an amazing group and look forward to my new role with the firm."

As a litigation attorney with extensive trial experience with beginnings at the Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office where she tried over 100 jury trials, Gisinger's practice has grown to include the defense of cases involving product liability, auto and trucking negligence, premises liability, medical malpractice, legal malpractice, employment law and insurance litigation.

"Kayce has an expansive career as an accomplished litigator, and the Firm couldn't be more proud to have her join our group of Directors and Shareholders," said Thomas G. Wolfe, President and Managing Partner. "We expect Kayce's expertise and commitment to her clients to flourish exponentially in her new role at Phillips Murrah."

A native Oklahoman, Gisinger was raised in Lawton and has resided in Oklahoma City for the past 30 years. She is active in her community and volunteers at various animal shelters and local food banks.

She officially assumed her new role on Jan. 1, 2018.
