Law & Oarder, Phillips Murrah's rowing team, gets ready to practice before racing in the 2018 Stars and Stripes River Festival.

Phillips Murrah's rowing team Law & Oarder completed the Summer 2018 season and improved on the team's competitive time from Fall's rowing season.

The team competed on June 23 at the 2018 Stars and Stripes River Festival held at the OKC Boathouse District.

"I am super proud of Law & Oarder," said Deena Baker, Legal Assistant and Law & Oarder team leader. "At the regatta we had a time of 1:58 in our heat race, which advanced us to the finals.

"Even though we didn't medal in the finals, we made a great run for it and finished with a time of 2:03. We aren't disappointed with our efforts at all, and it just gives the team more determination than ever for the Fall season which starts in just a few weeks.”

In all eight seasons the Firm’s rowing team has competed, team members consisted of both attorneys and staff members.

“The rowing team has been a great way to spend time with my coworkers,” Attorney Mark E. Hornbeek said. “It is also exciting to see the amazing changes that have been made to the city’s riverfront in recent years.”

Phillips Murrah has been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Oklahoma in 2017 by The Journal Record and an Oklahoma Top Work Place by The Oklahoman/Energage three years in a row. Our Firm strives to recognize and reward our employees for excellence.
