

Firm selects Employee of the Month for January 2019

Curt Bauer

Curt Bauer, File Manager, is Phillips Murrah's Employee of the Month for January 2019.

"It always feels great to be recognized by your peers as we all have the same ultimate goal: to serve our clients as well as we possibly can," Curt said. "I love working here as we are making great strides toward becoming paperless, although we still have a ton of work to do.

"It is an honor to be one of the driving forces behind reducing our carbon footprint while still continuing to serve our clients just as well as we did when we used paper, if not even more efficiently. While it is sometimes a daunting project, and one that cannot be done overnight, it is very rewarding to see the money we spend on storage continuing to go down, while finding more and more efficient ways to use technology to everyone's advantage. Computer documents are much easier to store, much easier to find, and cheaper to maintain."

The Employee of the Month is selected anonymously by Phillips Murrah staff on merits of teamwork and overall contributions to the Firm.

“Curt is one of the most conscientious people I have ever worked with and he will help in any situation,” said Michelle Munda, Executive Director. “When he’s asked to do anything, I can always be sure it’s done and done right!”

The Firm recently began making a donation to the winner’s charity of choice, and Curt chose the Epilepsy Foundation of Oklahoma.

“I am giving to them as I have had epilepsy my entire life,” Curt said. “I have been seizure free since 1984 due to the ‘experimental’ medication my neurologist put me on in 1982 that actually worked!”
