

Hasenfratz inducted into American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Sally Hasenfratz is a Director in the firm. She is a veteran real estate and transactional attorney with over 25 years of experience.

Phillips Murrah is proud to announce Director and Shareholder Sally A. Hasenfratz has been elected as a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers.

Admission to ACREL is by invitation only, following a rigorous screening process and significant peer review. Members are elected based on recognition locally and nationally as a distinguished real estate practitioner, high standards of professional and ethical conduct, and contributions within both the legal and non-legal communities to the improvement of the practice of commercial real estate law.

Sally is the leader of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group, where she focuses her practice on the acquisition, development, leasing and financing of all types of commercial real estate. She is a co-founder and past president of CREW-OKC, Inc., which is the local chapter CREW Network, a global organization formed to transform the commercial real estate by advancing women in the industry.

Sally has received a number of other honors such as being named in Chambers USA Guide to America's Leading Lawyers in Real Estate, The Best Lawyers in America (real estate, construction, land use and commercial transactions), and Super Lawyers (real estate, top 25 women lawyers in Oklahoma, top 50 lawyers in Oklahoma).

She brings to her transactional practice an LL.M. degree in taxation, which allows her to strategize with her clients from a broad view of their projects, helping them to plan, structure and execute each piece of the deal to maximize business objectives.
