

Firm selects Employee of the Month for October 2019

Samantha Arnold

Samantha Arnold, Administrative Assistant, is Phillips Murrah's Employee of the Month for October 2019.

"From day one, this firm has made me feel more appreciated as an employee than I've ever felt before, and winning Employee of the Month is just another example of how my peers have made me feel invaluable as a colleague," Sam said. "I work with truly the most interesting people who motivate me on a daily basis to be the best version of myself... and I guess it's working!"

The Employee of the Month is selected anonymously by Phillips Murrah staff on merits of teamwork and overall contributions to the Firm.

"Samantha came to us with no legal experience, and has shown really nice potential during her short time here," said Michelle Munda, Executive Director at Phillips Murrah. "She's smart, eager to learn and has a great attitude.

"We're excited to watch her progress!"

The Firm recently began making a donation to the winner's charity of choice, and Sam chose SameYou.

“I had a brain injury when I was 9 and was lucky enough to walk away from it, however, I do get severe headaches and have other issues that may have stemmed from my injury,” Sam said. “The thing is, the brain is still such a mystery to us as human beings, yet it’s what makes us who we are.

“Brain injuries have the capability of taking that away from us, so I want to donate to an organization that is helping people get back to who they once were.”
