

McMahan elected to OCBA Young Lawyers Division board

Attorney Natalie M. McMahan is a litigation attorney who represents individuals and both privately-held and public companies in a wide range of civil litigation matters.

The Oklahoma County Bar Association elected Attorney Natalie M. McMahan to the Board of Directors for the Young Lawyers Division \(YLD\) for 2021.

“I am looking forward to being connected to the larger community of young attorneys in Oklahoma County,” McMahan said. “The Board’s efforts to connect its members and contribute to the larger community through service and philanthropy are important to the profession and to me.

“I’ve already enjoyed getting to know the Board and look forward to becoming more involved as event planning resumes later this year.”

McMahan will serve as a member of the YLD Board of Directors through November.

The YLD was organized in 1966 to provide an avenue for Oklahoma’s young lawyers, who have been in practice for 10 years or less, to work on bar-related and public service-related projects.

In 2019, the Firm was honored by OCBA YLD with the “Friend of the YLD” award for the support Phillips Murrah and its attorneys have consistently displayed through volunteering and sponsorship.

Read more about McMahan and her legal experience here.