

Phillips Murrah sponsors Lynn Institute fundraising efforts

Phillips Murrah was a proud sponsor of the Lynn Institute's recent fundraising luncheon, which raised money for the organization and awarded local leaders and organizations for their community involvement.

The Legacy Luncheon, hosted August 19 at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, recognized Councilwoman Nikki Nice, Oklahoma City Mayor David Holt, Oklahoma City Police Lt. Wayland Cubit, and Dr. Patrick McGough each with a 2021 Community Championship Award.

The Lynn Institute's mission aims to provide clinical trials research and health services to benefit patients, sponsors, physicians, staff and associated communities. Learn more at the organization's website here.
