Phillips Murrah is a proud sponsor of the Midtown Walkabout event in the Midtown District on Saturday, April 15. Midtown Walkabout is free to attend and will be open to the public from noon until 4 p.m.

Phillips Murrah will have our tent set up in the parking lot at Brown's Bakery to meet our future new neighbors, so please feel free to swing by! Click on the map for more details.

This bi-annual event, organized in April and October, is a district-wide celebration of all things Midtown where the community can shop, eat, and enjoy the day while becoming more familiar with the district.

Midtown merchants will be offering a wide array of in-store specials, discounts, and activities during their normal operating hours, in addition to free family programming throughout the district, provided by the Midtown Association and Downtown Oklahoma City Partnership.
