BIOGRAPHY

Mark E. Hornbeek is an attorney with experience representing a wide range of clients in complex civil litigation. His practice includes state and federal cases involving products and premises liability, lender liability, insurance matters, contract and commercial claims, and construction disputes. Mark has represented clients through all stages of litigation, including through trial and on appeal.

Mark attended the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he earned the American Jurisprudence Award for Civil Procedure I, Torts I and Criminal Law. He served as Symposium Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review, was a member of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society, the Board of Advocates, and the Student Bar Association Board of Governors. Mark also received the Welcome D. Pierson Award for excellence in the fields of Evidence and Civil Procedure, the Gene and Jo Ann Sharp Award for his contributions to the Oklahoma Law Review, the William T. and James Comfort Scholarship, and was selected as a Dean's Leadership Fellow.

While pursuing his law degree, Mark had the opportunity to work as a judicial intern for both the Honorable Robert E. Bacharach of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 10th Circuit as well as Justice Noma D. Gurich of the Oklahoma Supreme Court.

Born and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Mark currently lives there with a grouchy pug. He enjoys reading in his free time and traveling with friends and family.
