BIOGRAPHY

Krishan Patel is a transactional attorney representing clients in a wide range of commercial transactions, including entity structuring, business acquisitions and divestitures, mergers and acquisitions, commercial leasing, and general real estate matters.

Krishan has represented clients ranging from owner operators, multi-unit owners, and investment groups in a wide variety of transactions. Krishan regularly works in the hospitality sector drafting and reviewing various agreements for clients in their purchase and sale, lease, and general business matters. In addition, Krishan has experience negotiating with franchisors and lenders to secure the best terms possible for his clients. Krishan also advocates for his client industries at the local, state, and federal levels.

Krishan was raised in Shawnee, Oklahoma, which he and his family have called home for over 25 years where they were owner-operator of an independent hotel. Krishan's experience growing up in the hotel and small business industry gives him a unique perspective on client needs. Krishan relocated to Norman, OK for his undergraduate and post-graduate studies. In his spare time, Krishan enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter, travelling, attending Sooner football games, playing sports and volunteering in the community.
