BIOGRAPHY

Marc Edwards is a Director, litigation attorney and Chair of the Firm's Government Relations and Compliance Practice Group. For over 25 years, he has represented public entities, particularly the state's public pensions, and business entities in a broad range of litigation, administrative proceedings and strategic legal matters, with an emphasis on public utility, governmental, and administrative laws.

Marc served as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Oklahoma from 1983 to 1987. He also served as the Hearing Examiner for the Oklahoma State Ethics Commission from 1995 to 1998.

Marc is active in the community and has served, and currently serves, on numerous not-for-profit boards. He is a 2007 Leadership in Law Award Recipient.

Born in Texas and raised in Missouri, Marc lives in Oklahoma City with his wife, Nikki Jones Edwards, their son, Sam. In his spare time, he enjoys watching his son play various sports, fly fishing, traveling with his family and piddling around the house.

EXPERIENCE

- Provided strategic legal representation to the state's public pension systems, administering over $7 billion in assets with more than 20,000 members or beneficiaries, including the Oklahoma Firefighters Pension and Retirement System, the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Retirement System and the Oklahoma Police Pension and Retirement System. He has served as general counsel for these pension systems for many years
- Represented the Oklahoma Firefighters Pension and Retirement System in numerous lawsuits in the state and federal and appellate courts
- Was instrumental in obtaining dismissals both in federal and state courts of lawsuits filed against the Oklahoma Firefighters Pension and Retirement System by members seeking additional military credited service time
- Assisted the Oklahoma Attorney General's office in similar lawsuits brought against the state's other pension systems
- Responsible for the pension system becoming an active participant in national class action securities fraud lawsuits through the retention of national securities law firms. The pension system has been appointed lead plaintiff in several major class action lawsuits; one lawsuit settled as one of the top class action lawsuits

- 2007, Supreme Court of the Chickasaw Nation

brought by an institutional investor in terms of money recovered for the class

- Negotiated and drafted hundreds of investment funds contracts in traditional investment vehicles and has participated in the negotiation and drafting of contracts for alternative investments, such as limited partnerships, co-mingled investment funds, funds of funds (i.e. hedge funds), Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) and passive investment funds
- Provided strategic legal representation to one of the largest communications companies in the state before the Oklahoma Corporation Commission and numerous municipalities around the state
- Represented a variety of telecommunications carriers on numerous telecommunications issues, including certificates of authority, regulatory compliance, interconnection negotiations and arbitrations, cable television and transactional matters
- Represented competitive local exchange carriers, interexchange carriers and commercial mobile radio services providers. Regularly appears before the Oklahoma Corporation Commission and in state and federal courts on telecommunications matters
