BIOGRAPHY

Kendra M. Norman represents individuals and businesses in a broad range of transactional matters in the areas of real estate, mergers and acquisitions, estate planning and business succession, tax law, and clean energy law.

Kendra served as the Articles Editor for the Oklahoma Law Review while studying at the University of Oklahoma College of Law. She received the American Jurisprudence Award for Contracts, Legal Research and Writing II, Criminal Law, and Transactional Law Practicum II. She was also selected as a Dean's Leadership Fellow and received the Comfort "Top Ten" Scholarship. She was a member and officer of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honors Fraternity. Kendra won First Place in the 27th Annual Ruby R. Vale Interschool Corporate Moot Court Competition 2015 in Wilmington, Delaware. She also won the Judge Wayne E. Alley Advocacy Writing Award.

Kendra is actively involved with the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and currently serves as the Network Specialist of Operations and Programming for Network 6 which covers chapters in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, and Louisiana. In that role, she volunteers her time to develop chapter leadership, and improve collegiate chapter operations and membership experience.

Born and raised in Yukon, Oklahoma, Kendra currently lives in Oklahoma City. In her free time, she enjoys listening to podcasts, spending time with her cat, and traveling.
