

SOURCE: TexCom, Inc.

January 03, 2012 08:30 ET

TexCom Appoints Oklahoma Corporation Commissioner Jim Roth as New Independent Board Member

HOUSTON, TX--(Marketwire - Jan 3, 2012) - TexCom, Inc. (PINKSHEETS: TEXC), an environmental services company for the oil and gas industry, today announced that Jim Roth has been appointed to serve as an independent member of the Company's Board of Directors. Roth's appointment increases the size of the Board from six members to seven; all of whom -- with the exception of Louis Ross, Chairman, President and CEO of TexCom -- are deemed independent.

"A highly respected government official and a noted expert in the U.S. energy and environmental markets, Jim is a valued addition to our Board who is sure to further enhance the governance of our Company and complement the respective strengths and expertise of our other Board members," stated Chairman Ross.

Commissioner Roth brings to TexCom extensive experience in the energy industry and an understanding of the nexus between energy and environmental matters. He currently leads the Natural Resources and Alternative Energy Practice Group at the Oklahoma City-based law firm of Phillips Murrah, and also serves as President of A New Energy, LLC, an energy consultancy specializing in energy policy and energy developments throughout the United States, and representing regional and national energy companies and foundations. In addition to serving in public office as an elected Oklahoma County Commissioner from 2002 through 2010, in June 2007 he was appointed to the Oklahoma Corporation Commission by Governor Brad Henry. In this role, Commissioner Roth oversaw responsibility for the regulation of oil and gas activities, energy policies, public utilities, telecommunications, transportation, petroleum storage tanks, pipeline integrity and safety and consumer services for the State of Oklahoma.

Prior to 2002, Commissioner Roth served county government for eight years as an attorney and Chief Deputy for a previous commissioner and county clerk. He is a member of the Oklahoma, Kansas and American Bar Associations, the Past-President of the National Association of Civil County Attorneys, and a Certified Mediator. Commissioner Roth earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science/Pre-Law from Kansas State University and a Juris Doctorate degree from Oklahoma City University School of Law. He also holds graduate certificates from Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, the U.S. Air War College's National Security Forum at Maxwell Air Force Base and the Institute of Public Utilities at Michigan State University.

About TexCom, Inc.

TexCom, headquartered in Houston, Texas, is a growth-oriented environmental services company with a primary focus on the disposal of nonhazardous wastes generated by the oil & gas industry. TexCom is expanding its interests to disposal of nonhazardous industrial wastewater, serving the refining and petrochemical industries. For more information, please visit www.texcomresources.com.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release and the presentation referenced above may contain forward-looking statements, including information about management's view of TexCom, Inc.'s future expectations, plans and prospects. In particular, when used in the preceding discussion, the words "believes," "expects," "intends," "plans," "anticipates," or "may," and similar conditional expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Any statements made in this news release or such presentation other than those of historical fact, about an action, event or development, are forward-looking statements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause the results of TexCom, Inc., its divisions and concepts to be materially different than those expressed or implied in such statements. Unknown or unpredictable factors also could have material adverse effects on TexCom's future results. The forward-looking statements included in this press release and the presentation are made only as of the date hereof. TexCom cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Finally, TexCom undertakes no obligation to update these statements after the date of this release, except as required by law, and also takes no obligation to update or correct information prepared by third parties that are not paid for by TexCom.