Biography

Jason A. Sansone is an experienced litigation attorney whose primary focus is on representing businesses and individuals in financial distress who need experienced guidance to get through their complex storm. He has filed bankruptcies, litigated adversary proceedings, and guided businesses through both restructuring and liquidation in over 500 cases, providing a holistic solution to keep business doors open and provide a fresh start.

Jason has represented clients in matters with the Internal Revenue Service, Oklahoma Tax Commission, Oklahoma Department of Labor, Oklahoma Attorney General, and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

Clients expect a clear vision and strategy from the onset of representation, timely communication throughout representation, followed by a successful conclusion to their case specific plan which results in a more stable tomorrow. Knowledge of the law, relationships with opposing professional counsel, and real business experience allows Jason to get clients through their periods of economic instability and successfully move forward in the quickest ways possible.

Prior to his private practice, Mr. Sansone served as General Counsel and Corporate Compliance Officer for a local collection agency operating in 46 states. Jason is admitted to practice in all Oklahoma state, federal, and bankruptcy courts, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. He is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, Oklahoma County Bar Association, Robert J. Turner American Inn of Court, and a Rotary Paul Harris Fellow. Jason twice previously campaigned for the Oklahoma House of Representatives for District 94.

Jason holds a Bachelor in Business Administration from the University of Oklahoma, Master of Business Administration with High Honors from Oklahoma City University, and Juris Doctor from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law. While in law school, he served as Vice President of the Student Bar Association (SBA), was a two-term member of the SMU Student Senate, and Dean's Scholarship Recipient. In addition, he interned with the Dallas County District Attorney's Office Family Violence Division and with the 44th State Civil District Court.
