

Camryn A. Conroy

Attorney

Camryn Conroy is a transactional attorney who represents clients in a wide range of commercial and business matters.

Contact

caconroy@phillipsmurrah.com

Oklahoma City

405.235.4100 Main
405.606.4735 Direct
405.235.4133 Fax

Practice Areas

- Business Law

Education

- University of Oklahoma College of Law (J.D., 2024)
- Pace University (B.A., 2020)

Admissions

- 2024, Oklahoma

Biography

Camryn attended the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where she was a Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society member. Her Note on tribal jurisdiction conflicts was published in the American Indian Law Review and she also served as a Research Editor for the publication.

Prior to law school, Camryn graduated magna cum laude from Pace University in New York City. She presented her academic research at several conferences in New York City and received awards and scholarships for her work and research, including the 2019 Dyson Society of Fellows Award.

Camryn was born and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. For leisure, she enjoys reading, yoga, and spending time with her family and friends, especially her husband, Matt, and their dog, Winnie.

Professional Organizations

- Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society