Biography

Beverly Vilardefsky is a Director and a member of the Firm's Corporate and Securities and Governmental Relations and Compliance Practice Groups. She has more than twenty years' experience representing public and private clients in a broad range of corporate, securities, and investment transactions.

Beverly also serves as investment counsel to a number of institutional investors, including many of the state's public pension plans. She has reviewed, negotiated, and structured several billion dollars in investments in a variety of "alternative investments," including U.S. and international private equity funds, technology funds, infrastructure funds, real estate funds, debt funds, direct investments, and other comingled vehicles.

Beverly also counsels public and private companies, from startups to Fortune 500 companies, on a variety of corporate, securities and business matters, such as private placements of debt and equity securities, venture capital and "angel" financings, mergers and acquisitions, fiduciary duties, corporate governance, and 33 Act and 34 Act reporting and disclosure requirements.

She is an honors graduate from both Georgetown University Law Center (LL.M.) and Oklahoma City University School of Law (J.D.), where she was a Merit Scholar and recipient of the West Publishing Outstanding Academic Achievement Award.

Beverly enjoys helping her local animal rescue and is a proud "foster failure." She is also an award-winning web designer and a published photographer. A self-described sports nut, she loves to watch baseball, college football, and college basketball in her free time.
