Biography

Camille N. Burge is a litigation attorney who represents individuals and both privately-held and public companies in a wide range of civil litigation and family law matters.

Camille attended the University of Oklahoma College of Law where she served as Class President and President of Black Law Student Association. She was selected as a member of the Order of the Solicitors, Dean's Honor Roll, Dean's Leadership Fellows, Board of Advocates, and Board of Governors.

While in law school, Camille served as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Judge David B. Lewis of the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals. She also obtained certification in Early Settlement Mediation through the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.

Camille was born and raised in Oklahoma City and received a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Oklahoma, where she also competed on the Track and Field team and earned Academic All Big XII honors in 2017-2019. In her spare time, she enjoys cheering on the Oklahoma Sooners, traveling, and spending time with her friends and family.
