Biography

Madeline Nelson is a litigator who represents clients in insurance defense and coverage, car dealership defense, and general commercial litigation. She also maintains an active transactional practice encompassing entity formation, estate planning, probate, and the negotiation and drafting of commercial contracts and leases.

Prior to joining Phillips Murrah, Madeline spent several years in civil litigation with a particular emphasis in consumer law, insurance defense, products liability, and premises liability.

While in law school, Madeline earned her Juris Doctor from Oklahoma City University School of Law, where she was recognized as a Merit Scholar and CALI Award recipient and was listed on the Dean's List. She was an active member of Phi Beta Kappa, the Advancement of Women in Law, and the Animal Law Group, and further distinguished herself through an externship with the Oklahoma Supreme Court and an internship with a mid-size civil litigation firm in Oklahoma City.
